Hon'ble Minister,

Sub — Grant of Temple Lands S. Nos 21 and 17 Sandur Bhujangappa village Sandur taluk. Requested

Ref — Nil

I beg to submit this my Second Petition for the grant of S. Nos. 21 and 17 on Permanent Tenure. I hope that you are good enough to allot these lands in my favour on Permanent Tenure.

In connection with Ref. to L. Dis I 1993/52 from the office of the Revenue Board Chepauk Madras dated 5.6.52 States that no Permanent assignment of the Temple lands can be made now. But in my previous Petition, submitted on 27.4.52 to Ad. Sandur, I have given many instances of that kind of Permanent Tenure. The whole Village of Bannihatti and Devara Mallapura are enjoying the Previlege of Permanent Patta. Ryots at Taranagari, Chikka Sandur and Sandur have been given Permanent Pattas Recently.

The above mentioned lands i.e. S.Nos. 21 and 17 were in my great-grand fathers' possession and enjoyment but on account of the Conflict between the Late Raja and forefathers of mine has made to lose these lands. Since 1948 I have taken possession of S.No. 17 on the Temporary assignment. This kind of Temporary assignment (Yearly) will not fetch the Ryots. The assessment of this land is Rs 19.8-0 but I am paying Rs 125.00

I want to improve these lands on the Modern Methods and hope that you will be good enough to grant me these lands. As Hon'ble Minister knows that I am one of the Political Sufferer in the Merger Activity of Sandur State I believe

That the Hon'ble Ministers will do the needful
I am even ready to pay Tax in the assessment of the land

Yours faithfully.
